Today and tomorrow are Cardinal Connections.

Attention students! This is a reminder that bathroom passes are not given during 4th period. Students have 30 minutes during lunches to take care of these needs. If it is an emergency, your teacher will call Ms. Dismuke in the main office for approval.

Last Saturday, members of the band competed in the Mountain Regional Solo/Ensemble Contest, and our Cardinal Band was WELL represented! All Cardinal musicians earned a score of "excellent," with percussionist Andrianna AlMazrourie earning a "Superior" and a spot at the State Contest in April at CWU. Way to go Cardinal Band!

There will be no Drama Club meeting today. Again, no drama club today.

Pierce College will be hosting its first annual ASPIRE Summit for Asian American and Pacific Islander students on Saturday, February 3rd, from 8 am to 3 pm. There will be speakers, workshops and a college resource fair to support your post-secondary plans. Plus, our own FP Pacific Islander Club will be performing at the Summit. Registration is now closed but Mrs. Goodrum reserved some seats so if you'd like to attend, stop by the library to get a field trip permission form and ride the bus with PIC.

And hey Cards, don't forget . . . The Saturday Writers Studio at Tacoma Public Library also begins a new set of workshops this Saturday, February 3rd. Class topics for this round include short historical fiction, spoken word, and eco-poetics. Classes are free and open to writers of all skill levels. No registration required. Questions? Stop by the library and see Mrs. Goodrum.

Are you a writer or an artist or both? Express your creativity; earn up to $100; and get published! Enter the Pierce County Library System's Teen Writing & Art Contest — Our Own Expressions. Contest participation is FREE, and students may submit work in one or more of the following four categories: poetry, short story, photography or drawing. Submissions are due by February 28th. Learn more at expressions.pcls.us or stop by the library — Mrs. Goodrum is here to help.

From the CCC . . .

The Washington National Guard will be here today in the Commons during lunches. Be sure to check them out!

In sports . . .

There will be a Baseball Pre-Season meeting after school today in the Corrigan Room. If you plan on playing, make sure you attend the meeting. See you there!

If you signed up to play in the Princess Bowl this year, remember that we have our first practice today after school. Meet in room 801 at 3 pm.

There will be a Boys' Soccer interest meeting in the 1700 science lab next Monday, February 5th, right after school. If you plan to play, you must be present. See you there!

Attention football players! if you want to play football next season, there will be an interest meeting next Monday, February 5th, at 3 pm in the Corrigan Room. Come learn about our off-season plans for this spring and summer. Again, this meeting is for all football players — even those who are just thinking about it — so join us on Monday, February 5th, at 3 pm in the Corrigan room. Questions? See Coach Ahrens.

Do you enjoy contact sports? Do you like trying new things? Play rugby! The Tacoma Tsunamis are defending state champs and are looking for male and female high school athletes of all ages and skill levels. Brand new players are welcome! Come see why rugby is the fastest growing sport in America. A short interest meeting will take place right after school on Tuesday, February 6th, in Mr. Quill's room, 601.

And Cardinals, don't forget . . . Tuesday, February 6th, is also a Pack the Gym Night for Special Olympics basketball at WHS! Come watch our FP unified team play and support our PIC while they perform during half-time. Game time is 6 pm.
